

BUENA PARK POLICE DEPARTMENT

PRESS RELEASE

Corey S. Sianez, Chief of Police

March 31, 2016

4:00 PM

Buena Park, Ca.

On March 30, 2016, the Buena Park Police Department received a report of the attempted kidnapping of a 10-year-old child from San Marino Park. The incident occurred around 3:00 pm., approximately 30 minutes after the adjacent San Marino Elementary School was released for the day. The child, who was sitting on a park bench, was approached from behind by an unknown adult male. The adult covered the child's mouth and dragged the child a few feet away before the child was able to break free.

The adult male was described as being white, in his 40's, 6'0, heavysset, brown hair and a goatee. He was wearing a red shirt, jean shorts, red hat and sunglasses. It is unknown where the suspect went following the incident, or if he was associated with a vehicle.

Anyone who witnessed the incident, or with any other information should contact Buena Park Police Department PIO Sgt. Bret Carter at 714-213-0721.

Attempt to Identify

On Wednesday, 03/30/2016, BPPD received a report of the attempted kidnapping of a 10-year-old child from San Marino Park (6200 San Rolando Circle, Buena Park). The incident occurred around 3:00 pm, approximately 30 minutes after students from the adjacent San Marino Elementary School were released for the day. The child, who was waiting on a park bench, was approached from behind by an unknown male adult suspect. The suspect covered the child's mouth with his hand and dragged the child a few feet away before the child was able to break free. It is unknown where the suspect went following the incident or if he was associated with a vehicle.

The suspect pictured in the above sketch was described as a male white in his 40's; 6'00" tall with a heavy build; with brown hair extending from a backwards red hat and yellow tinted mirrored black frame sunglasses; wearing a red short sleeved shirt with sports balls on the front, jean shorts with a bleach spot on the left leg, and open toe shoes/sandals; and having a short length goatee with a scab on his right cheek.

Anybody who witnessed the incident, or has any additional information, should contact the Buena Park Police Department at (714)562-3901.
